FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hungerford Announces New Shareholders

Grand Rapids, Mich., January. 6, 2025 – Hungerford CPAs + Advisors is pleased to announce the election of Emily Paszkowski to the position of Shareholder. With the addition of Emily, Hungerford now has 15 Shareholders leading their team.

“We are thrilled to welcome Emily as the newest shareholder of Hungerford” said Tom Prince, Managing Shareholder. “Emily’s unwavering commitment to excellence, her innovative approach to problem-solving, and her ability to inspire those around her make her a perfect fit for this role. Her leadership and expertise have already made a tremendous impact on our firm, and we are excited to see how she will continue to shape our future and strengthen the relationships we build with our clients and community.”

Emily Paszkowski, CPA, CFE – Shareholder:

Emily is a passionate problem solver, thriving in challenges that require untangling complexities and crafting creative, efficient solutions. Her dedication extends beyond client engagements—she is committed to fostering a culture of lifelong learning and continuous improvement, inspiring colleagues to innovate and make the firm an even better place to work and grow.

With expertise spanning business advisory, accounting, fraud investigation, and litigation support, Emily has become a trusted partner for businesses in manufacturing and distribution, real estate and property management, and professional services. Her professional affiliations include the AICPA, MICPA, and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, further reflecting her commitment to excellence in her field.

A proud alumna of Grand Valley State University, Emily earned her Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting. Beyond her professional achievements, she gives back to the community through her service on the Finance Committee for Girl Scouts of Michigan Shore to Shore and as Board Treasurer of MomsBloom and her involvement on the Race Committee for The Brian Diemer Family of Races.

“Emily is an incredible leader, business partner, and friend,” said Tessa Keena, shareholder. “Her leadership is demonstrated through her strategic mindset, strong technical ability, investing in developing others, and a focus on continuous improvement and efficiency. She is deeply committed to fostering an environment that supports personal and professional growth and has championed initiatives that support working parents to thrive at home and in their careers. We have evolved through Emily’s dedication, leadership, and visionary approach and I am beyond grateful to be able to lead alongside of her!”
